5/6/75

Dear Harold,

I have been concerned about your illness and relieved to hear that you are recovering. This is probably useless but I do urge you to slow down and protect your physical well-being. There is no joy in being ill. So do please look after yourself.

All the best,

As ever,

Sylvia